The General's Letter.

Again I find my bands so full that I can do little more than apologise for my namal letter. I must, however, have a word of congratulation on account of the word of congrassitation of account of the passing of the Bill for the better protes-tion of young girls, for which we have longht this short charge built, and which is now the law of the land. Let us prease God for this. I am intensally thinkful for the success, seeing that it is a reward for dass Mes. Josophina Butler and her commades, and for the Editor of the "Pall Mail Garstle," We really gibbed much in the contest, and to those of my comradoe who took the matter so thoroughly to heart, and responded so succifichly to the calls made upon them.

minificulty to the calls made upon them. The Bill is only an instalment of the tree measure of justice due to woman; still it is an instalment, and unless I am mistalment yet mobination and. And if it is worked wisely and persoveringly, it worked wisely and persoveringly, it will prove only the beginning of the end of a vast mountain of vile intiquity that more actual to ground head to the heavests—intiquity of more hinds than one. For the vices of everyoless march in company, fadd when one is present the others are sower far caway.

Anjhow, while we thank God for the success It's base given to the first effort of The Shaviston Army to improve the laws of the nation, and riesy that God may use the measure to "put an ood to some of the inflamous insplitties that have been doriosed during the less faw week, we muse

Already the tidings have gone forth on the wings of the wind that God has laid it on our hearts to bely the lost.

Mothers, and guestiane are writing from all parts of the land implicit of the land implicit of the condition. All the Blaff we can lay lands on are hung tracking the young creatures who have been decoyed away and ruined, or whose fall is a whice, and with the land in the land of the land in the land of th interest as being possible, every day.

The following letter is only a sample of what the post is hringing ue, and is only the substance of what daily is heing spoken with downcast eyes and same-sovered faces by poor gitls from eleven years of ago and upwards.
